

S'N'G STRATEGY

Handout

What is your position at the poker table?

The starting hand charts

Overview: Blindsteal hands

Overview: Stealraises

Which hands can you have on the flop?

Your guide through the limits

What is your position at the poker table?

Your position

Blinds
	SB
	BB

Late Position
	CO
	BU

Middle Position
	MP1
	MP2
	MP3

Early Position
	UTG1
	UTG2
	UTG3

The starting hand charts

Your strategy for the early tournament phase

Hands	Raises in front of you	Early Pos.	Middle Pos.	Late Pos.	Blinds
AA, KK	No	Raise
	Exactly one	Raise
	More than one	All-In
QQ	No	Raise
	Exactly one	Raise
	More than one	Fold
AK	No	Raise
	Exactly one	Call
	More than one	Fold
JJ, TT	No	Call	Raise
	One or more	Fold
99 to 22	No	Call
	One or more	Fold
AQ, AJ, KQ	No	Fold		Raise
	One or more	Fold

Special Rule

If there is a re-raise behind you, you only continue on with AA, KK, QQ and AK and go directly all-in. You fold all other hands.

If an opponent raises more than 6 blinds, you only continue on with AA, KK, QQ and AK and go directly all-in. You fold all other hands.

The starting hand charts

Hands you play during the middle phase of a tournament

Hands	Raises in front of you	Early Pos.	Middle Pos.	Late Pos.	Blinds
AA, KK	No	Raise
	One or more	All-In
AK, QQ, JJ	No	Raise
	Exactly one	All-In
	More than one	Fold
AQ, TT	No	Fold	Raise
	One or more	Fold

Special Rule

If there is a re-raise behind you, you only continue on with AA, KK, QQ and AK and go directly all-in. You fold all other hands.

Overview: Blind steal and steal re-raise hands

Overview of all possible blind steal hands

Your position	You raise to steal the blinds with ...
Cutoff CO	Aces	AJ
	Kings	KQ
	Pairs	99, 88, 77, 66
Button BU	Aces	AJ, AT
	Kings	KQ, KJ, KT
	Queens	QJ
	Pairs	99, 88, 77, 66, 55, 44, 33, 22
Small Blind SB	Aces	AJ, AT, A9, A8
	Kings	KQ, KJ, KT, K9
	Queens	QJ, QT
	Pairs	99, 88, 77, 66, 55, 44, 33, 22

Overview of all possible steal re-raise hands

Position of your opponent	You go all-in as a steal re-raise with...
Early Position	Aces	AK, AQ
	Pairs	AA, KK, QQ
Middle Position	Aces	AK, AQ
	Pairs	AA, KK, QQ, JJ, TT
Late Position	Aces	AK, AQ, AJ
	Pairs	AA, KK, QQ, JJ, TT, 99, 88
Small Blind	Aces	AK, AQ, AJ
	Kings	KQ
	Pairs	AA, KK, QQ, JJ, TT, 99, 88, 77

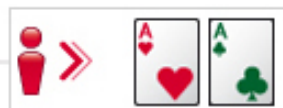

Which hands can you have on the flop?

Which hands can be played profitably?

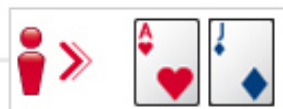

► Top-Pair

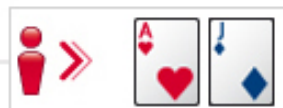

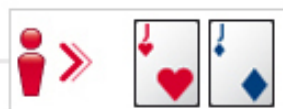

► Overpair

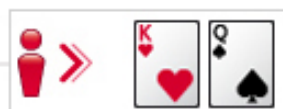

► Two Pairs

► Three of a kind

► Straight

Which hands can you have on the flop?

Which hands can be played profitably?

► Flush

► Full House

► Quads

► Straight Flush

► Royal Flush

Your guide through the limits

Starting point for your poker career are the 50 dollars PokerStrategy puts at your disposal. With this money you start playing tournaments with a maximum buy-in of $1 (without tournament fees / rake)

Step 1: The $1 tournaments

If you have less than $100, play tournaments with a maximum buy-in of $1 (without tournament fees / rake)

Step 2: The $2 tournaments

In order to play the $2 tournaments you need a bankroll of at least $100. (without tournament fees / rake)

Step 3: The $2,50 tournaments (or $3)

For the $2,50 tournaments you need at least $125. Some platforms also offer $3,00 tournaments. For these you need at least $150.

Step 4: The $5 tournaments (or $6)

If you have managed to reach a bankroll of $250 you can move up to $5 tournaments. Some platforms only offer $6 tournaments. For these you need $300.